MORGAN SCHOOL DISTRICT

Morgan School District is a small rural district located in Northern Utah. Morgan County is home to about 3000 students in four schools. We provide quality educational programs with Weber State University through IVC classes as well as the Davis Applied Technology Center

MISSION STATEMENT

It is the mission of the Morgan High School community to help students prepare for meaningful work, advanced education, responsible citizenship and life-long learning.

MORGAN HIGH SCHOOL

(801) 829-0697 Fax

Morgan High School is a four-year high school including grades 9-12. Approximately 900 students are currently enrolled.

ACCREDITATION

Morgan High School is accredited by the Northwestern Accreditation Association.

SCHEDULE

The school day consists of six class periods of 60 minutes each. We serve students for three trimesters.

CALENDAR

Trimester 1 – 08/23/17 through 11/17/17
Trimester 2 – 11/18/17 through 02/28/18
Trimester 3 – 02/29/18 through 05/24/18

GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA) AND CLASS RANK

GPA and rank are based on grades 9-12. All courses for which the student receive an A,B,C,D, or F grade are included in the GPA. A passing grade (P) is not included in the GPA, but will receive graduation credit. If a student repeats a course, both grades are included in the GPA with only one of the courses receiving core credit.

All students are included in the class rank according to the simple cumulative GPA.
